SOOTHE END-OF-SUMMER BLUES WITH A FALL SPA RETREAT TO COCONUT BAY BEACH RESORT

St. Lucia resort offers getaway package to showcase new organic treatments in upgraded spa

VIEUX FORT, St. Lucia (August 30, 2011) – The all-inclusive Coconut Bay Beach Resort & Spa, on St. Lucia's exotic southern coast, is inviting travelers to soothe away those end-of-summer blues with an escape to the recently revamped oceanfront Kai Mer Spa. Three new oceanfront cabanas, a new product line and a range of new treatments make now the perfect time to book a spa retreat at Coconut Bay.

Luxurious new eco-friendly products from Sothy's of Paris and indigenous ingredients have been combined to create new treatments appealing to multiple senses. A highlight of the new menu is the Customized Sensorial Escape, combining a body polish and moisturizing massage. Guests are presented with three different blends of scented massage oils and their experience is then customized depending upon their choice. Kai Mer's spa therapists have recently continued their professional education in order to upgrade the services offered by undergoing intensive training provided by a US-based consultant.

Other new treatments include the Pineapple Mango Facial, incorporating velvety mango cream with hydrating and softening properties and pineapple extract serum offering a complex of vitamins to bring well-being and comfort. The Papaya-Pineapple or Mango-Passion body scrubs and wraps incorporate an organic scrub to exfoliate and energize, releasing negative ions prior to an aromatic and calming wrap to soften and smooth the skin. Guests also have the opportunity to visit the spa's own aloe garden and cut a leaf of the healing plant to be used in their treatment.

Couples can indulge together with a variety of special treatments for two. Those who choose the Champagne and Chocolate Package will enjoy a soothing chocolate and sugar body smoothie while sipping champagne, followed by a creamy moisturizer with natural essences. Couples looking to experience a treatment that combines nourishing, healing, age-defying and repairing properties should try the Champagne and Caviar Package, which includes a facial complete with caviar mask, followed by a replenishing caviar hand and foot treatment, topped off with a bottle of champagne. The Moonlight Massage for Two is the perfect way to wind down the day with a bottle of champagne under the stars.

Solo travelers, couples, and friends traveling together will love Coconut Bay's tranquil adults-only Harmony side of the resort, scattered with cabana beds, hammocks and many secluded spots. In the Harmony wing, recent in-room upgrades include new top of the line pillow-top mattresses, duvet linens and flat screen televisions. The adult pool and bar offer an escape for those seeking a serene area to relax and lovebirds can enjoy each other's company during the weekly couples only beachfront dinners.

Travelers looking for a complete spa escape can book the Fall Spa Retreat from September 1 through November 19, 2011. This package includes all meals, drinks and snacks daily; two spa treatments from a selection of 30 - 50 minute treatments; daily fitness classes including water aerobics, yoga, pilates or circuit training; intro to kitesurfing or windsurfing lesson; mixology classes with resort bartenders; evening entertainment and weekly manager's cocktail party.
