

I Do For Two Elopement at Coconut Bay Beach Resort

Miami (Summer, 2012) – Say “I do” to seaside elopement at St. Lucia’s Coconut Bay Beach Resort & Spa and say “I don’t” to Bridezilla stress and high costs.

TheKnot.com and WeddingChannel.com, polled nearly 18,000 U.S. brides who were married in 2011 about the cost of their big day. Results showed that New York, where the average cost of a wedding is $65,824, is the most expensive city in the United States to get married but many couples will spend about $27,000 to tie the knot and that doesn't include the cost of the honeymoon.

Included free in elopement getaways and Cocomoons of xx days or more:

- Decorated wedding location: beach, gardens or gazebo
- Bridal bouquet
- Boutonniere for groom
- One tier wedding cake
- Chilled bottle of sparkling wine
- Personal wedding coordinator
- One (1) 5 x 7 wedding photograph with frame
- Clergy or Marriage Officer
- Government & administrative fees
- Copy of marriage license
- Witnesses (if required)
- Guaranteed Dinner reservations for wedding party (up to four)

“What is unique is that Coconut Bay offers an adult wing, Harmony, that is perfect for the wedding couple, but also offers a full-service family wing, Splash, that is family-friendly,” states Mark Adams, president of Coconut Bay Beach Resort. “It’s perfect for second marriages, vow renewals or if family wants to join the couple on their happy day.”

Whether couples choose to walk down the aisle or down the shore, Coconut Bay provides the ideal backdrop for glorious celebrations of any size. With nuptials offered on the beach, in the elegant ocean-front gazebo or lush tropical gardens, our resort provides enchanting settings for every wedding style.

Brides who book with Coconut Bay can select from multiple stress-free wedding packages in the resort's new offerings, making it simple for lovebirds to create magical memories, no matter the budget. From bridal spa treatments or our signature champagne turndown service to sailing on a catamaran at sunset or even private island tours, Coconut Bay's wedding packages and professional wedding planning team offer all the elegant options to make ceremonies an affair to remember.
